++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry with sunny spells. Windy and cold.

Today:
Further showers will feed into coastal areas on a strong and gusty northerly wind first thing. The showers gradually easing to leave a mostly dry afternoon, with some sunny spells. Feeling cold in the wind, especially along the coast. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with clear spells overnight, and turning chilly with a touch of frost in places. Cloud will increase from the northwest to bring some drizzle on western hills by dawn. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Friday:
Mostly cloudy with some patchy light rain and drizzle at times, mainly on western hills. Drier with some bright or occasional sunny spells elsewhere. Less cold than previous days. Breezy. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Wet and windy weather sweeping southeastwards on Saturday, with gales possible. Brighter with some showers on Sunday. Winds gradually easing. Dry with sunny spells on Monday after a cold start.
